

The Mayor's Office of Arts + Culture Invites You to an Online Meeting, hosted on Zoom, to talk about

PUBLIC ART

for the Northern Avenue Bridge Project

Thursday, July 16th, 2020

7:00 pm- 8:00 pm

The Mayor's Office of Arts and Culture for the City of Boston is hosting a public meeting on July 16th to talk about public art for the new Northern Avenue Bridge. We'll share a brief presentation about the process for City- commissioned public art followed by a Q and A session. We encourage you to attend!

For the safety of the project team and meeting attendees, this meeting will be hosted online, using Zoom. The meeting will be recorded and posted online for those who cannot attend. The presentation will be shared prior to the meeting on boston.gov/arts to give people who can only attend by phone an opportunity to review the presentation.

The Mayor's Office of Arts and Culture welcomes inquiries or comments about this process or project at bac@boston.gov. Please use the subject line "Northern Avenue Bridge". Comment period closes July 30, 2020.

Details on how to join and participate in this meeting will be posted on the Mayor's Office of Arts and Culture website:

www.boston.gov/arts

As well as the project website:

www.northernavebridgebos.com/news-meetings

Mayor's Office of Arts + Culture
Kara Elliott-Ortega, Chief